All:

First, let me express my appreciation for the work you do - the Park system is a true treasure, and we use it multiple times per week.

Last spring was my first attendance at 2-day town, and it truly is a great experience. There's a community that forms and works together for three days, with amazingly little problems. I helped with cleanup, and was amazed at how little trash there was remaining to haul off. I would encourage you to spend some time (maybe attend the premiere of the 2-day town film at the Vine) getting to understand the community and maybe appreciate how unique it is. The event is run on volunteer power, and curtailing the time available for set-up may make it impossible.

As for music (at the campsites, not on the stage) after 10, this really doesn't happen down at the main campground, and everyone up at the 2DT camp area is there to hear it. None is amplified, and some of it is pure magic. Nobody down the hill is disturbed. (I know - that's where we stayed.)

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thanks for your time.

Regards,

Kevin
